Randy – The last I heard (which was before the GK release last week) was that the ARSG meeting would be on Tuesday, August 25. Whatever agenda might have been planned is probably going to be deferred given the current crisis but I don't know for sure. Stay tuned. I'll try and remember to forward to you the agenda when it comes out. You could also contact Peter Butler and ask him to put you on his email list.

Have they set a date and time for the next ARSG meeting?

I will not be on the Upper Animas conference call on Thursday as I will be in my HAZWOPER refresher training.

Thanks
